

BEST PRACTICES FOR THE CELEBRATION OF CONFIRMATION

Introduction

1. The United States Bishops have promulgated a revised translation of the Order of Confirmation. This 2016 edition is a retranslation of the 1971 Rite of Confirmation; it follows the guidelines of Liturgiam Authenticam (2001) and the revisions to the Roman Missal, third edition (2011). While substantive changes are few, the publication of the new translation offers an opportunity to review and assess diocesan celebrations of the Sacrament of Confirmation. The pastoral recommendations which follow are based on current liturgical texts and are designed to assist dioceses and parishes in the authentic celebration of the sacrament.

THEOLOGICAL PRINCIPLES

CONFIRMATION AS A SACRAMENT OF INITIATION

- 2. Confirmation is a sacrament of Initiation. It is the Church's desire that "the intimate connection which this sacrament has with the whole of Christian Initiation be more clearly set forth." The following recommendations suggest how to strengthen the link between Confirmation and the other sacraments of initiation, namely, Baptism and Eucharist.
- 3. The Order of Confirmation is frequently celebrated apart from the other sacraments of initiation with youth or adults who were baptized as infants. The Bishop, as the ordinary minister of Confirmation, or his delegate, presides at these parish celebrations. This document will primarily address this pastoral situation.
- 4. The diocesan Bishop may establish norms for the celebration of Confirmation and may allow certain local customs and practices. These norms and customs are typically communicated by the appropriate diocesan office.

¹ "Confirmation is understood in continuity with Baptism, to which it is connected in an inseparable way. These two Sacraments, together with the Eucharist, make up one salvific event - "Christian initiation" - with which we are inserted in Jesus Christ dead and risen and become new creatures and members of the Church" (Pope Francis, General Audience, January 29, 2014). See also Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy 71.

SCHEDULING THE CELEBRATION OF CONFIRMATION

- 5. Dependent on the Bishop's schedule, Confirmation should be celebrated "on the day of sacrament, the 'pre-eminent'" day of the liturgical assembly, the day of the Christian family, and the day of joy Sunday, preferably a Sunday of Easter. The gathering with the believing community on Sunday is the key formative experience in the initiation journey. Catholic sacramental theology understands the sacraments as celebrations of the entire Christian community and sees Sunday as the day when the community comes together as Christians to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection. Sacraments are ecclesial events that involve the entire community in addition to immediate family and friends.
- 6. The mystery of Christ unfolds through the liturgical year. At the center of the year is the celebration of the Paschal Mystery of the Lord and the renewal of baptismal promises at Easter. The initiation of children into sacramental life should follow this pattern and be supported by its themes and spirit. Since Lent is seen as a time for the preparation for the celebration of Baptism, it is not the ideal time for Confirmation. When it is celebrated during Lent, the penitential nature of the season should be taken into consideration. In some dioceses, the Bishop's schedule may limit celebrations during Easter Time. Consider other alternatives, such as, celebrating Confirmation with several parishes together.
- 7. "As a rule, Confirmation takes place within Mass so that the fundamental connection of this Sacrament with all of Christian Initiation, which reaches its culmination in the Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ, may stand out in a clearer light. The newly confirmed therefore participate in the Eucharist, which completes their Christian Initiation. If, however, the candidates for Confirmation are children who have not received the Most Holy Eucharist and are not being admitted to First Communion at this liturgical celebration or if other special circumstances so suggest, Confirmation should be conferred outside Mass." In the dioceses of the United States, however, the National Statutes for the Catechumenate dictate that the sacraments of initiation should be conferred at the same celebration.

⁴ "The Sunday event, with its physical movements, gestures, ritual actions and euchology, will be regarded as symbolization, an act and not an idea. The doing is symbolic." LITURGICAL PRINCIPLES

PREPARATION OF THE CANDIDATES AND THE ASSEMBLY

- 8. The Constituion on the Sacred Liturgy states, "Mother Church earnestly desires that all the faithful should be led to that fully conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations which is demanded by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people as "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a redeemed people (1 Pet. 2:9; cf. 2:4-5), is their right and duty by reason of their baptism" (#14). The Mass should be arranged in such a way that the faithful may participate fully in its celebration in a conscious and active way. This is both their baptismal responsibility and their right. In arranging the celebration, forms and elements should be chosen that "more effectively foster the active and full participation" of the people and respond to their spiritual needs. This is true, in particular, for the candidates and their parents. Every effort should be made to celebrate this rite with noble simplicity, a fundamental principle for all liturgical celebrations. The candidates' participation will be increased if they have been involved in the preparation of the liturgy.
- 9. Candidates should receive appropriate liturgical catechesis. There are two forms of liturgical catechesis. One is catechesis through liturgy; the other is catechesis for liturgy. In the former, the liturgy itself is the basis of catechesis. In the latter, the preparation of the people for participation in the liturgy occurs outside the liturgical context. Therefore, liturgical catechesis should include a breaking open of the Scriptures that will be proclaimed at the celebration of Confirmation and a discussion of the ritual actions, especially the renewal of the baptismal promises, the imposition of hands and the anointing with Sacred Chrism. Candidates should not be strangers or silent spectators at the liturgical rites.¹⁰
- 10. Before the celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation, it is of great importance that parents, "moved by their own faith or with the help of friends or other members of the community, should prepare to take part in the rite with understanding." Before the celebration, a brief musical rehearsal (followed by an invitation to silence), can help facilitate the assembly's participation.

BAPTISMAL IMAGERY AND SYMBOLS

11. Symbols and ritual actions are the language of the faith and of the Church's prayer. The liturgical rites of the Church utilize signs and symbols. Attention to symbols will gradually open minds and hearts to the inexhaustible mystery of Christ. The generous use of symbols, such as the abundant use of Sacred Chrism, better engages the senses. Since Baptism is the gateway to all other sacraments, catechesis could explore such symbols and imagery. Attention to visual elements should be given great prominence in both pre-ritual catechesis and in the celebration of the sacrament.

LITURGICAL MUSIC

- 12. The 2007 document of the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops, Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, offers guidelines for selecting music for liturgy. Paragraphs 137-199 are especially helpful and should be reviewed when preparing the celebration of Confirmation.
- 13. Music should be appropriate to the liturgical season as well as the sacrament of Confirmation. It should be familiar to the assembly. Musical selections from Pentecost Sunday are appropriate, as are those with themes of discipleship, ministry, mission, and the Christian life. The thematic index in the parish hymnal can be of assistance. See Appendix C for musical suggestions.
- 14. A worship aid or booklet helps the assembly follow the liturgy and participate in it. A worship aid might include:
 - an outline of the service (utilizing correct headings, typefaces and spacing);
 - the words and music to those parts which the assembly is expected to sing or say;
 - directions for posture (e.g., sit, stand, kneel);
 - brief explanations of those parts which may not be familiar to the assembly.

The worship aid should have an attractive appearance which contributes to the beauty of the celebration. It should not include the texts of the prayers and Scripture readings which the ministers alone will say, unless they are proclaimed in multiple languages.

COPYRIGHTS

- 15. Hymn texts, music and liturgical texts are protected under copyright laws. Copyrighted words and music cannot be modified without the permission of the copyright holder. Copyright laws should be honored at all times.
- 16. The specific formatting of copyright acknowledgements for worship aids and programs are directed by the company which grants the license. This text usually indicates that the music is being copied with permission. With each song, the author of the text, the composer of the tune, and the copyright owner is to be acknowledged. You can determine a uniform style for your worship aid. However, the title must always appear above the song; the rest of the information may appear below it. Reprint license numbers may appear in the acknowledgement section of the worship aid or beneath each song. At the back of most hymnals / song books, there is an acknowledgements section listing additional copyright information.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS

17. Confirmation candidates should not serve as liturgical ministers. Trained parish servers, readers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion should fulfill these roles.

USE OF THE BAPTISMAL NAME

18. In keeping with the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, which emphasized the connection between Baptism and Confirmation, candidates should be encouraged to use their baptismal name when being confirmed. Ideally, the baptismal name is the name used at Confirmation, since the use of the baptismal name emphasizes the continuity of the sacraments of initiation. Neither the Order of Confirmation nor the Code of Canon Law make mention of taking a new name.

THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE

19. Inspired by the scrutinies of the RCIA, Confirmation candidates should be encouraged to examine their sins and take note of anything that keeps them from living a life in harmony with the Gospel.¹² Parish staffs might supply reflections to help the candidates examine their consciences as they prepare for the sacrament of Penance.

PROPER ATTIRE

20. The Order of Confirmation makes no reference to the dress of the candidates. However, clothing that is dignified and modest is suitable. Where the use of confirmation robes is a custom, or seems to be pastorally advisable, a white baptismal garment is more suitable than a colored graduation gown. Stoles or anything resembling clerical vesture is prohibited.

¹² The celebration of the Scrutinies is more than a ritual requirement for initiation. "The Scrutinies are meant to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. For the Scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth and the life." Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults 141.

CELEBRATION OF THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

21. The purpose of the Introductory Rites of the Mass is "to ensure that the faithful who come together as one establish communion and dispose themselves to listen properly to God's word and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily."¹³

PROCESSION

22. The candidates (and their sponsors) may enter in the entrance procession before the ministers or, because they are members of the assembly, they may be seated in advance.

RITE FOR THE BLESSING AND SPRINKLING OF WATER

23. The baptism of all may be called to mind by the sprinkling with blessed water in place of the Penitential Act.¹⁴ Many Bishops have extended the use of the "Rite for the Blessing and Sprinkling of Water" beyond celebrations on Sunday. Some diocesan Bishops have made its use normative at Confirmation celebrations in their diocese, in proper season.

THE GLORIA

- 24. The Roman Missal, third edition introduced a new rubric for Ritual Masses, including the Ritual Mass of Confirmation. "These Masses are all treated as if they were Feasts, and the Gloria is used...Thus for example Masses for Confirmation, Holy Orders, or Marriage would include a Gloria, even when they occur on weekdays of Advent or Lent. It should be noted, though, that Ritual Masses are prohibited on Sundays of Advent and Lent." ¹⁵ (See appendix A of this resource.)
- 25. Since singing is one of the primary ways that the assembly of the faithful participates actively in the Liturgy, the Gloria should be sung. "While through-composed settings of the Gloria give clearest expression to the text, the addition of refrains is permitted, provided the refrain encourages congregational participation." ¹⁶
- 26. The Gloria is not used when Confirmation takes place outside Mass.

¹³ GIRM 46.

¹⁴ The Roman Missal, third edition, adds a footnote to the Penitential Act directing one to Appendix II, "Rite for the Blessing and Sprinkling of Water."

 $^{^{15}}$ USCCB Committee on Divine Worship Newsletter, Vol. XLVIII, January 2012, "Seven Questions on Implementing the New Roman Missal."

¹⁶ Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, 149

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

27. The Liturgy of the Word is celebrated in accord with the rubrics. At the table of the Word, the baptized Christian "feasts on every word that comes from the mouth of God." ¹⁷ The assembly is invited to active listening, which is dialogical in nature, that is, listening and responding to God's call.

CHOICE OF READINGS

- 28. The readings may be taken in whole or in part from the Mass of the day or from the texts for Confirmation in the Lectionary for Mass (nos. 763-767). See Appendix B for a list of scriptural citations from the Order of Confirmation.
- 29. Parish readers should exercise this ministry rather than one of the confirmandi. The readings should be proclaimed from the Lectionary for Mass and never from loose sheets or a missalette.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

30. The Responsorial Psalm should be led by a parish psalmist or cantor and proclaimed from the ambo.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

31. The Gospel Acclamation (Alleluia) is generally sung. During Lent, the alleluia is replaced by one of the Lenten acclamations. When the Gospel Acclamation is not sung, it may be omitted.¹⁸

THE RITE OF CONFIRMATION

PRESENTATION OF THE CANDIDATES

- 32. After the gospel, the pastor, another Priest, a Deacon, or a catechist, depending on the local custom, presents the candidates. "If possible, each of those to be confirmed is called by name and individually approaches the sanctuary." ¹⁹
- 33. If it is not possible to call the names of all the candidates, each sponsor presents the candidate as he/she approaches the Bishop.²⁰ "The candidates for Confirmation are presented by the Pastor or another Priest, or by a Deacon, or even by a catechist, in accordance with the custom of each region, in this way: if possible, each of those to be confirmed is called by name and individually approaches the sanctuary; but if they are children, they are accompanied by one of their sponsors or parents and stand before the celebrant. If there are very many candidates, they are not called by name; but they are assigned to a suitable place before the Bishop."²¹

¹⁷ Deuteronomy 8:3.

¹⁸ GIRM 63c.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL PROMISES

34. After the homily, those who are to receive Confirmation are asked to call to mind the faith which was professed in Baptism by parents and godparents in the community of the Church, by renewing their baptismal promises.²² The candidates have been awakened in faith, have petitioned God in their unbelief and are ready to confess faith.²³ The symbol of faith is first and foremost the baptismal creed. For the affirmation of Baptismal faith the candidates stand before the Bishop. The text of the renewal of baptismal promises in the Order of Confirmation echoes the text used at the Easter Vigil.

THE LAYING ON OF HANDS

- 35. Saint Paul VI wrote that "The sacrament of Confirmation is conferred through the anointing with chrism on the forehead, which is done by the laying on of the hand, and through the words: "Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.²⁴
- 36. Saint Paul VI added that "... the laying of hands over the elect, carried out with the prescribed prayer before the anointing with Chrism, [at OC #25] even if it is not of the essence of the sacramental rite, is still to be regarded as very important, inasmuch as it contributes to the complete perfection of the rite and to a more thorough understanding of the Sacrament. It is evident that this prior laying on of hands differs from the later laying on of the hand in the anointing with Chrism on the forehead."
- 37. The first "laying on of hands" (OC 25), is accompanied by the prayer which invokes the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. When there is a large number of candidates, the presider extends his hands over all the candidates. When only a few are confirmed, it may be possible for the Bishop to lay hands on each of the candidates individually.²⁵ Those Priests who are assisting with the anointing "join the Bishop in the laying of hands on all the candidates."²⁶

²¹ OC 21

²² OC 22

²³ See Mark 9:14-29.

²⁴ OC, p. xxv, Paul VI, Apostolic Constitution (1971). See also, OC 9.

²⁵ Godfrey Diekmann, OSB stated, "The gesture of ritually laying hands on someone is the gesture of touch per eminentiam, its clearest and most potent expression. It signifies that the communication of numen, of the life-force or of divine power, is deliberately willed and directed. It is such a power-laden gesture that it effects what it signifies." From "The Laying on of Hands: The Basic Sacramental Rite" from Proceedings of the Twenty-ninth Annual Convention of the Catholic Theological Society of America, Chicago, Illinois. June 10-13, 1974.

²⁶ See OC 9, 25. See also OC 8 for a list of those whom the Bishop may associate with himself as ministers of the sacrament.

THE ANOINTING WITH CHRISM

- 38. At Confirmation, the forehead is signed with Sacred Chrism. The sacramental symbol of anointing is more effective when a generous quantity of the fragrant oil is used so that the candidates may see, feel, and smell it. The words that accompany the anointing, "Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit" and "Peace be with you" should also be audible to the assembly.
- 39. During the anointing a suitable chant may be sung.²⁸ If there are a large number of candidates being confirmed, a combination of hymns, psalms, choral and/or instrumental music could be utilized. The traditional chant Veni, Creator Spiritus could be sung.²⁹

A period of silence during the Anointing with Chrism will allow the assembly to hear the dialogue between the Bishop and the candidates.

THE UNIVERSAL PRAYER

- 40. The Liturgy of Confirmation concludes with the Universal Prayer, which consists of three parts, namely:
 - the invitation to prayer by the presider;
 - the petitions announced by a minister, with the response of the assembly;
 - a concluding prayer by the presider.

The structure of the Universal Prayer should follow the form that is given in the Order of Confirmation #30.

- 41. The announcement of the petitions ordinarily belongs to a Deacon. In the absence of a Deacon another suitable, well-trained minister announces the petitions. In all cases, it is desirable that only one person announce the petitions.
- 42. "Because it has the structure of a litany, and provided that it can be understood when sung, it is appropriate to sing the Universal Prayer, or just the invitation and response, or even the response only." ³⁰
- 43. When Confirmation is celebrated within Mass, the Liturgy of the Eucharist follows. On those rare occasions when Confirmation is celebrated outside Mass, the Liturgy continues with the Lord's Prayer and Blessing or the Prayer over the People.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

44. "It is desirable that the participation of the faithful be expressed by an offering, whether of bread and wine for the celebration of the Eucharist or of other gifts to relieve the needs of the Church and of the poor." The gift bearers may be selected from among the newly confirmed. 32

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

45. During Eucharistic Prayers I, II, and III the proper embolism for the newly confirmed is added.

When the Roman Canon is used, the proper form of the Hanc igitur (Therefore, Lord, we pray) is said:

Therefore, Lord, we pray: graciously accept this oblation of our service, that of your whole family, which we offer you also for those reborn in Baptism, whom you have been pleased to confirm by bestowing the Holy Spirit, and in your mercy, keep safe in them your grace. (Through Christ our Lord. Amen.)

When Eucharistic Prayer II is used, after the words and all the clergy, the following is added:

Remember also, Lord, your servants whom you have been pleased to confirm today by bestowing the Holy Spirit, and keep them in your grace.

When Eucharistic Prayer III is used, after the words the entire people you have gained for your own, the following is added:

Remember also, Lord, your servants reborn in Baptism whom you have been pleased to confirm by bestowing the Holy Spirit, and in your mercy, keep safe in them your grace.³³

³³ See the Roman Missal, Ritual Mass 4. For the Conferral of Confirmation – A, or OC 58.

THE COMMUNION RITE

- 46. Eucharist is the celebration of the new and everlasting covenant borne in baptism. It is here at the Lord's table, where God's people find nourishment and strength and are gathered into a Church, one and holy.³⁴ At the celebration of the Order of Confirmation within Mass, Holy Communion under both forms is desired, since it better follows Christ's commands at the Last Supper to "take and eat ... take and drink." ³⁵
- 47. During the distribution of Holy Communion, the unity of the community is made manifest in the Communion procession.
 - The music begins when the Bishop (or Priest) receives the Eucharist and continues for as long as the Eucharist is being distributed³⁶;
 - Communion songs with easily memorized refrains or sung in the style of a responsorial psalm are most effective³⁷;
 - If a song is to follow the Communion distribution, that song should be sung by the entire congregation, rather than by a soloist or by the choir alone³⁸.
- 48. "It is most desirable that the faithful, just as the Priest himself is bound to do, receive the Lord's Body from hosts consecrated at the same Mass and that, they partake of the chalice, so that even by means of the signs Communion will stand out more clearly as a participation in the sacrifice actually being celebrated." ³⁹

BLESSING

49. The Roman Missal and the Order of Confirmation give the option of using a Solemn Blessing or a Prayer over the People. The Deacon or, in his absence, the presider himself, says the invitation: "Bow down for the blessing." ⁴⁰

Solemn Blessing at the End of Mass
The Bishop, with hands extended over the newly confirmed, says:
May God the Father almighty bless you, whom he has made his adopted sons and daughters reborn from water and the Holy Spirit, and may he keep you worthy of his fatherly love.
R. Amen.

May the Holy Spirit, who kindles the fire of charity in the hearts of disciples, bless you and lead you blameless and gathered as one into the joy of the Kingdom of God. R. Amen.

And he blesses all the people, adding:

And may almighty God bless all of you, who are gathered here, the Father, ♣and the Son, ♣and the Holy ♣ Spirit.

R. Amen.

Or:

PRAYER OVER THE PEOPLE

The Bishop, with hands extended over the newly confirmed and the people, says: Confirm, O God, what you have brought about in us, and preserve in the hearts of your faithful the gifts of the Holy Spirit: may they never be ashamed to confess Christ crucified before the world and by devoted charity may they ever fulfill his commands. Who lives and reigns for ever and ever. R. Amen.

And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, ♣ and the Son, ♣ and the Holy ♣ Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever. R. Amen.

RECESSIONAL

50. The newly confirmed may leave in the recession. They may either precede the ministers of the Mass or follow the Bishop. This recession is much more than a signal that the Mass has ended. The newly confirmed are sent as beloved disciples of Jesus and servants of the Gospel, bringing the Good News into all the strata of humanity. 41 Gathered together by the word of life and strengthened by the sacrament of love we are sent, workers into the great harvest that the Gospel may be preached to every creature. 42

⁴¹ See GIRM 90c and Evangelii nuntiandi (Evangelization in the Modern World) 18.

⁴² "Sacramental faith celebrated is not an end but a beginning. It is never merely intellectual reasoning. Faith seeks understanding. Understanding is the ability to apply and transfer knowledge. Faith seeking understanding shifts from rational reflection to pondering, meditation and contemplation leading to transformation and courageous action." Sr. Sandy DeMasi, D.Min., Dissertation: The Faith and Formation of Adults Who Bring their Children for Baptism: A Plan of Liturgy and Catechesis.

CONCLUSION

51. Confirmation enriches the baptized with the strength of the Holy Spirit so that they can bear witness to Christ in word and deed. Anointed by the Holy Spirit at confirmation, Christians strengthen their bond with the Church and become better equipped to carry out the Church's mission of love and service. We hope these Pastoral Recommendations are helpful as you prepare to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation worthily and well.

Scripture Readings

If Confirmation is being celebrated at a regularly-scheduled parish Mass of precept (see appendix A), the readings of the day must be used. The first reading is taken from the Old Testament. The second reading is taken from the New Testament. During Easter Time, the first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles and the second reading is taken from one of the letters of the New Testament..

READINGS FROM THE OLD TESTAMENT (Lectionary for Mass, no. 764)

1. Isaiah 11:1-4ab	The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him.
2. Isaiah 42:1-3	Here is my servant upon whom I have put my Spirit.
3. Isaiah 61:1-3abcd, 6ab, 8c-9	The Lord has anointed me; he has sent me to bring glad tidings to the lowly and to give them the oil of gladness.
4. Ezekiel 36:24-28	I will put a new spirit within you.
5. Joel 2:23a, 26—3:1-3a	I will pour out my Spirit upon the servants and handmaids.

READINGS FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT (Lectionary for Mass, no. 765)

1. Acts 1:3-8	You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses.
2. Acts 2:1-6, 14, 22b-23, 32-33	All were filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues.
3. Acts 8:1bc, 4, 14-17	They laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.
4. Acts 10:1, 33-34a, 37-44	The Holy Spirit fell upon all those who were listening to the word.
5. Acts 19:1b-6a	Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?
6. Romans 5:1-2, 5-8	The love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.
7. Romans 8:14-17	The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God.
8. Romans 8:26-27	The Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings.
9. 1 Corinthians 12:4-13	But one and the same Spirit produces all these gifts, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

10. Galatians 5:16-17, 22-23a,

24-25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also follow the Spirit.

11. Ephesians 1:3a, 4a, 13-19a You were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit.

12. Ephesians 4:1-6 One Body and one Spirit, one baptism.

RESPONSORIAL PSALMS (Lectionary for Mass, no. 766)

15-16, 21 R. (1b) I will praise your name for ever, Lord.

ALLELUIA VERSES AND VERSES BEFORE THE GOSPEL (Lectionary for Mass, no. 767)

1. John 14:16 I will ask the Father and he will give you another

Advocate to be with you always.

2. John 15:26b, 27a The Spirit of truth will testify to me, says the Lord; and you also will testify.

3. John 16:13a; 14:26b When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you to all truth and remind you of all I told you.

4. Revelation 1:5a, 6a Jesus Christ, you are the faithful witness, firstborn from the dead; / you have made us a kingdom of priests to serve our God and Father.

5. Come, Holy Spirit; shine on us the radiance of your light.

6. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.

GOSPEL READINGS (Lectionary for Mass, no. 768)

1. Matthew 5:1-12a	Theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
2. Matthew 16:24-27	Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself.
3. Matthew 25:14-30	Since you were faithful in small matters, come, share your master's joy.
4. Mark 1:9-11	Jesus saw the Spirit descending upon him.
5. Luke 4:16-22a	The Spirit of the Lord is upon me.
6. Luke 8:4-10a, 11b-15	The seed that fell on rich soil: they are the ones who, when they have heard the word, bear fruit through perseverance.
7. Luke 10:21-24	I give you praise, Father, for you have revealed hidden things to the childlike.
8. John 7:37b-39	Rivers of living water will flow.
9. John 14:15-17	The Spirit of truth will remain with you.
10. John 14:23-26	The Holy Spirit will teach you everything.
11. John 15:18-21, 26-27	When the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father comes, he will testify to me.
12. John 16:5-7, 12-13a	The Spirit of truth will guide you to all truth.
